

Epic Game Music returns to PGA!

After a three-year break, the Poznań Game Arena returns to a unique spectacle that combines music and the world of games. Epic Game Music will take place on October 7th at the Earth Hall. Visual Production, the organizer of the entire project, prepared for this day as many as two concerts.

A unique performance and a symphonic-rock show, not only for music lovers from the virtual world of games - this is how you can briefly describe the event that will take place during the Poznań Game Arena fair. In previous editions, the concert attracted thousands of people and achieved great popularity. The visitors will have an evening full of twists, musical surprises, heroes and stories about their struggle for a better world and faith in good.

The CoOperate Orchestra, conducted by the irreplaceable Adam Domurat, and the Academic Choir of Adam Mickiewicz University prepared by Beata Bielska will perform on the stage. The performers will delight with great arrangements of legendary game soundtracks, from classic games such as Doom, Assassin's Creed or Battlefield, to The Witcher and God of War.

Epic Game Music will take place on October 7th, during the VIP DAY of the Poznań Game Arena fair. Visual Production, the organizer of the entire project, has planned for this day as many as two concerts - at 18:00 and 20:30. The event is ticketed separately from PGA. Ticket prices start from PLN 90 and are available at THIS link.

Both concerts will take place in the Earth Hall, which is part of the Poznań Congress Center. It is a unique plenary room, which can seat nearly 2,000 people and is distinguished by modern multimedia facilities. The space is fully adapted to the organization of congresses, concerts, banquets and special events at the highest world level.

The Poznań Game Arena fair will be held from 7th to 9th October 2022.
